Section II – Inspection Costs only

To be eligible for compensation, your vehicle must have had an inspection of its fuel system and, if required, removal of a sticky brown residue from its fuel system parts, and you must not claim for compensation of Expenses incurred for repair of Fuel System Problems under the Settlement Agreement.

➤ If you can certify that your vehicle had such an inspection and that you are not claiming for Expenses, please check the box and sign in the space indicated.

My vehicle had an inspection of its fuel system and, if required, a sticky brown residue was removed from its fuel system parts. I am not claiming for Expenses incurred for repair of Fuel System Problems under the Settlement Agreement.

Section III – Prior Compensation by Shell

Shell has already compensated many customers relating to the fuel used during the period described. If you have received any compensation from Shell, you must declare it here. This includes gift certificates received as a goodwill payment or for inconvenience. Any compensation previously received from Shell under the same head will be deducted from the amount to which you may otherwise be entitled under this settlement.

Also, if you have received compensation from Shell specifically for Expenses, you are not eligible to claim for Inspection Costs. Expenses are repair bills, towing, reasonable alternative transportation costs, lodging and meals incurred in respect of fuel system problem(s), such as full pump problems causing a failure to start following a period of inactivity or such as fuel sensor problems causing a wavering or stuck fuel gauge, or a fuel warning light blinking empty when the tank was substantially full.

➤ Please check the box which applies to you, and sign in the space indicated.

I have not received any compensation from Shell (including via Crawford) relating to the use of Shell fuel in my vehicle between March 1, 2001, and October 31, 2002.

Section IV – Gas Purchases

To be eligible for reimbursement of the costs of the inspection specified in Section II, you must have purchased at least $200 of Shell-branded gasoline between March 1, 2001, and October 31, 2002, for use in the vehicle that you have identified in Section V as having had an inspection.

➤ You can prove your gas purchases in one of two ways:

1. Attach receipts or AIR MILES® statements showing purchases of Shell-branded gasoline between March 1, 2001 and October 31, 2002, which total at least $200. If you have attached receipts or AIR MILES® statements, please check this box.
2. If you do not have receipts or AIR MILES® statements, but purchased at least $200 of Shell-branded gasoline between March 1, 2001 and October 31, 2002, please check this box.

You have already provided a sworn Registration Form before the inspection took place.

Section V – Claims Information

If you have completed Sections I, II, III and IV, and supplied the material requested, you may be eligible for compensation (less compensation already received from Shell, if any) in one of the following three categories. Please read the following carefully to determine your category and the additional documentation you must provide to Shell:

Category 1: You owned or leased a Chrysler vehicle (including Dodge and Plymouth vehicles), but not a Chrysler Jeep vehicle, of model years 1996 to 2003 inclusive, which had an inspection of its fuel system as stated in Section II (above).
